International Advances in Plant Virology

in conjunction with Cost Action FA1407

to be held at University of Greenwich, UK

on 7–9 September 2016

The programme for this conference will be open to any topics or areas within basic or applied plant virology, will include all current areas of interest to Plant Virologists and will consist of presentations by invited speakers as well as offered papers by conference delegates.

We welcome submissions from established researchers, post-docs and students. The meeting will include the student competitions as outlined below. Invited speakers include:

Plant-virus interactions

Michael Taliansky (The James Hutton Institute, Dundee, UK)

Plant resistance to viruses (eIF4E)

Sylvie German-Retana (INRA, Bordeaux, France)

Virus replication

Peter Nagy (University of Kentucky, USA)

In addition there will be 'felicitation' ceremonies for Roger Hull and Bryan Harrison and both will give 'special' presentations on plant virology

Student Prizes

Student prizes will be awarded for the best talk (Bryan Harrison prize) and best poster (Raymond/Roger Hull prize). If you are a student, please indicate if you would like to be entered for one of these prizes.

Presentations and posters from this Conference will be produced as Abstracts. Copies will be available to delegates at the Conference. Please send title of the paper, authors, affiliations and a short synopsis of your talk or poster to the AAB office (Email to Russell@aab.org.uk). Alternatively you can fax the attached sheet to the AAB Office (Fax +44 (0)1789 470234), or upload your offer online via our web site at <http://www.aab.org.uk>. Register your email and, after being sent a password, can upload your offer. Click on CONFERENCES in the menu bar, then ABSTRACTS, then the title of Conference. Please indicate if your offer is for a poster or a platform presentation. Please ensure your POP UP BLOCKER is off, or the abstract may not load properly.

NOTES

1. STUDENTS. It is the Association's policy to grant reduced registration fees to students. This provision is subject to space being available and booking forms must be accompanied by a signed statement from the student's supervisor attesting that he/she is a full-time student. If students would like to apply for an AAB Student Travel Grant please send your request in writing to the AAB Office. Forms are available on the AAB Web Page: <http://www.aab.org.uk>
2. Conferences of the Association are private but visitors are most welcome. The publishing of reports of papers given at these conferences should only be done with the permission of the organiser and the authors of the papers concerned, who may require to see proofs before this permission is given.
3. The Association would like to send you details of relevant conferences in the future. Please tick box if you do not want to receive these details
4. Please note that photographs are sometimes taken at AAB conferences which we publish in our Newsletter to members.

*AAB full membership for 2016 is £60.00 and £20.00 for students
For further details on membership contact the AAB Office
