The Friedrich Haberlandt Scholarship - Post-Grad Soybean Research

The organisers of the 'Friedrich Haberlandt Scholarship' are looking for "an enterprising and motivated doctoral student". The scholarship is named after the agricultural scientist Prof. Friedrich Haberlandt (1826–1878) who pioneered soybean cultivation in Europe.

For more information on the opportunity, please follow the link above.

The American Society of Plant Biologists - Travel Grants

Recently we received confirmation that the ASPB are offering a limited number of travel grants to attend the Plant Biology Conference 2018 in Montreal, Canada. Students and Postdocs must include a research abstract, two letters of recommendation and a statement that expresses why attending Plant Biology 2018 would enhance their career.
